Colonel White:

While I have concurred in this proposed advertisement, I would think that following the publication of the Tuohy article in the Washington Post this morning it would be quite evident that this is a CIA "ad". On the other hand, I do not have any logical alternative for your consideration.

they have agreed to sponsor the attached non-Agency identified recruitment advertisement to be published in approximately thirty (30) metropolitan newspapers and in the military press. This advertisement is the result of extensive review and coordination within the Clandestine Services and the Recruitment Division. Because of its explicit nature, and in view of the current political climate, we believe publication should be withheld until after the election, but because of urgent needs for the people we hope to attract, it should appear reasonably soon thereafter.

3. The proposed advertisement has been reviewed by the Recruitment Advertising Committee and has their endorsement.

4. It is recommended that the attached advertisement be approved for publication as described above.
